Jill,

Based on the dates of the conviction you provided, [REDACTED] does not have to complete a Certificate of Restoration of Voting Rights (COR). However, before [REDACTED] may register to vote, this office must verify that the felony occurred during the grace period, that is, between January 15, 1973 and May 17, 1981.

The court documents which you included in your email are a part of the verification process. Please thank [REDACTED], or whoever gave you the court documents, for providing this information.

Joshua Anderson, who has been processing the CORs, is out of the office this week. However, by copy of this email, I am providing him with what you emailed, and he will follow-up with you on [REDACTED]'s eligibility to register to vote.

Thank you for sending the evidence of when the felony convictions occurred. Have a great rest of the day.

Beth

General Dunaway,

I hope my message finds you well. I am contacting you today regarding the Certificate of Restoration of Voting Rights (COR) that we received for [REDACTED]. Beth Henry-Robertson, Assistant Coordinator of Elections, had contacted you by phone and you were kind enough to return her call with your email address included in the message.

Briefly stated, the COR applies to those convicted of a felony after May 18, 1981. Based on the information provided on the attached COR, Mr. [REDACTED] was convicted of Receiving and Concealing Stolen Goods on May 1, 1965. Because of the date and the conviction type, the restoration of Mr. [REDACTED]'s voting rights depends on whether at the time of the conviction a judge rendered him "infamous." If the court did not render Mr. [REDACTED] "infamous," this office can advise the county election commission that Mr. [REDACTED] is eligible to vote and a COR is not required. However, if the court rendered Mr. [REDACTED] "infamous," he must obtain a court order restoring his voting rights.

Along with the COR, I have attached to this email a document that provides some details about this process.

If you have any questions, or if I can be of assistance in any way, please contact me or Beth Henry-Robertson who is copied on this email.

Debra,

Yes, [REDACTED], with DOB [REDACTED] and SSN you sent by Secure Email, has 3 felony convictions:

- 6/9/1980 – Armed Robbery with Deadly Weapon (Sumner Co)
- 6/9/1980 – Grand Larceny (Sumner Co)
- 10/20/1986 – Cocaine – Sell Sch. II Drugs (Rutherford Co).

He has not had his voting rights restored. Because the two 1980 convictions appear to be in the felony “Grace period,” he would just need to get copies of the Judgment Orders from the Sumner County Circuit/Criminal Court to confirm that those are the dates of conviction. For the 1986 conviction, he must get a COR completed.

I hope this helped!

Thanks,

Jessica

Vicki,

It means that I did not find any record of a felony conviction in the data available to us.

If [REDACTED] affirmatively disclosed a felony conviction in 1979 Craighead County, then he ordinarily would need to provide paperwork on that conviction. I know you said you already called Craighead and Lakehead County, and neither could find anything. You might want to call the AK Department of Corrections or his local parole/probation office to double check. But after that, because it's a close call, I think he would fine to register to vote.

Jessica

Dorcas,

Back in November, you emailed me about [REDACTED], who had felony convictions in Fort Worth, Texas in 1980 (federal) and in Louisiana in 1997 or 1998. He had made some arguments about how he did not need to submit any additional documentation.

Today I finally had a chance to speak with Mr. [REDACTED]. For the federal/grace period conviction in Texas, I told him that the documents he sent from the National Archives are sufficient. As you know, we always require a copy of the Judgment to confirm that the conviction indeed fell during the grace period, but the documents show his case documents were destroyed. There is no other way he could get confirmation. The documents also list his case as being filed in 1979, so it's another indicator that his conviction was probably during the grace period. So we will make a slight exception and accept the documents he sent to cover his federal/grace period conviction.

For the Louisiana conviction, I explained to Mr. [REDACTED] that we still need three documents that he should be able to request from the Court: (a) a copy of the Judgment Order showing the date and offense, (b) court documentation showing he paid all court costs, and (c) court documentation showing he paid any restitution or that none was ordered. He seemed to understand and said he would get started requesting those immediately. He also said he received a Pardon. He understood that it wasn't sufficient to restore his voting rights, but I told him that he is welcome to submit a copy of that document as well. The more documentation the better, I always say.

There's no action needed from you at this time. I just wanted to let you know the status. Hopefully you will soon get the other documentation from him. When you do, please re-submit everything to me all together, including the documents from the National Archives regarding his federal/grace period conviction.

Let me know if you have any questions!

Thanks,

Jessica

Lainny,

I cannot issue a restoration/eligibility letter for a Grace Period conviction unless I have documentation from the Court verifying the conviction fell within 1973 to 1981. Here, [REDACTED] has submitted the opposite – the Rutherford County Court Clerk is stating they do not have any documentation verifying a felony conviction in 1977.

The only thing I can do with this documentation is say that, after a reasonably diligent search, I did not find any record of a felony conviction for [REDACTED], DOB [REDACTED], with the SSN you provided.

If she is sure she has a felony conviction in 1977, she will need to get some type of documentation from the court where she was convicted to verify her conviction date. Maybe she was convicted in a different county? Maybe it was federal? But if after checking with the court she does not believe it was a felony, she can fill out a new voter registration and mark “no” to the felony question. You can then save that new registration with my email.

Thanks,

Jessica

Susie,

I did a simple search and did not find a felony conviction for [REDACTED], DOB [REDACTED], SSN xxx-xx-[REDACTED]. But that does not mean he does not have a felony conviction. The data we receive from Tennessee and federal courts is not perfect, especially for older convictions. It is much more likely the Warren and Marion county court clerks will have documentation, even if they have to go into their archives.

If the court clerks cannot find any information (even in their archives), you should contact me. I will then run the more complex search in all of our databases for any information. If I still do not find anything, we can talk about next steps.

Also, just to clarify – even if he has a felony conviction any time in the 1970s, he does not have to fill out a COR. For convictions before January 15, 1973, he is eligible to vote unless he was convicted of an infamous crime (which would not include a drug charge). For convictions between January 15, 1973 and May 17, 1981, he is still eligible to vote and just needs to submit paperwork showing his conviction date and offense. You said you gave him CORs to take to the court clerks for each of the crimes. If so, you should call and clarify that for his 1970s conviction he just needs a document (like a copy of the judgment order) showing his conviction date and offense.

Thanks,
Jessica

Jessica,

I have a gentleman who came in this morning who had marijuana charges in the past--one in late 70s and one in early 90s, both in Tennessee--Warren and Marion counties. He says does not know if they were felonies or not. The story goes--first time the officer took him to jail and called his father, he went to the judges office, Daddy paid a fine and he was done. The other time he just paid a fine. But I don't know for sure if he has a felony conviction, he brought it up, and of course, I don't know what really happened. I gave him CORs to take to the Court Clerks. These are old charges and they may well tell him they don't see anything and not fill out the forms.

His name is [REDACTED], DOB [REDACTED], last four [REDACTED]. Can you find anything on him?

Subject: Felony Conviction Information

Good morning,

My name is D.J. Hall and I am an Elections Assistant with the Tennessee Secretary of State's Office, Division of Elections. I am reaching out to inquire about a felony conviction in Galveston County for an individual attempting to register to vote here in Tennessee.

██████████, DOB ██████████, indicated on his voter registration application that he was convicted of Burglary in Galveston County between 1969 and 1972. Mr. ██████████ said that he did not have any documentation from that conviction, nor did he seem to know the date or any other information regarding it. After a search of the courts websites, I was only able to find a number of misdemeanor cases for Mr. ██████████, but nothing showing a felony in the date range he indicated.

Due to the date and nature of the crime he indicated he was convicted of, I am unable to determine if he is eligible to vote under Tennessee state law, as individuals convicted of "infamous" crimes before January 15, 1973 (of which burglary was generally one) are not eligible to register without a court order restoring their rights or a pardon. However, if he was not declared infamous, he would in fact be eligible to register to vote, barring any other felony convictions.

I am hoping that our office may obtain a copy of the judgment for Mr. ██████████'s felony case if someone from your office is able to locate it. I would appreciate any assistance you can provide in this matter or if you could direct me to someone in your office that may be able to help.

DJ,

I have received the attached info from North Carolina about Mr. [REDACTED] felony conviction. Is this sufficient to establish that his felony conviction was within the grace period?

Subject: RE: [EXTERNAL] [REDACTED] restoration of rights

Good morning,

After looking over this document and doing some research to try and find record to confirm the date of conviction, I do not believe it is enough to confirm the date of his conviction. In the document restoring his rights in North Carolina, it says that he was placed on probation in 1979 and not that he was sentenced for a felony conviction in 1979. In fact, on this document, I cannot even truly tell whether or not he was convicted of a felony, as the part pertaining to felons is mentioned at the end and seems to only be directed to those who have been convicted of felonies, indicating that this document could have been issued to someone who didn't have one. Additionally, since this only says when he was placed on probation, I cannot confirm the date of the conviction either. With this in mind, Mr. [REDACTED] would need to receive a copy of his judgement from the time of his conviction if it was a felony, or some other confirmation document from the Onslow County court confirming the date of his conviction for any and all felonies.

If you have any other questions about this just let me know!

Thanks,

D.J.

DJ,

Attached is a copy of the restoration of citizenship rights that Mr. [REDACTED] got in 1981 for a crime committed in 1979 in North Carolina. I believe this conviction date falls within the Grace period. Will he need to provide anything else?
